ELKS' FAIR.

Ancient Order of Hibernians
Will Assist in Making It a Success.

The Carnival Parade Will Be the Grandest Ever Seen in This City.

Suggestion That Irish-American Secure Space for An Irish Village.

MATTER REFERRED TO THE DIVISIONS

The meeting of the County Board of the Ancient Order of Hibernians Wednesday evening was an important one, and the business transacted shows that the whole order has a wide-awake interest in all our public enterprises. There was a large attendance, every division in Jefferson county being well represented.

One of the matters of importance before the board for consideration was the Elks' fall industrial exposition and street fair, which will be held from October 9 to 21. It was voted to lend all the assistance possible to make the undertaking a grand success, the Secretary being instructed to communicate that fact to the General Committee. It was also decided to refer the proposition to take part in the carnival parade to the different divisions, to be acted upon this month, and this will probably result in adding a body of at least 1,000 men to that feature of the celebration.

Many of the members favored the plan to secure sufficient space for the purpose of conducting an Irish village, such as that at the World's Fair, where life and industries as they exist in Ireland would be exhibited. This would prove a great attraction and thousands would doubtless come to Louisville to visit it.

Many committees are hard at work and are meeting with great encouragement from our merchants and manufacturers, and the work of all departments is being pushed with great vigor.

END HOPED FOR.

Residents Disgusted With the Flirtations of a Hotel
Boarder.

There is a hotel not far from Fifth and Jefferson in which a flirtation is being carried on between the wife of the proprietor of a well-known furnishing house and a young man widely known around town, the termination of which is being watched by not a few in the neighborhood. The endearing epithets addressed by the beautiful Diana to her beloved M— are enough to give a villainous attack of dyspepsia to a sound man. The people who live in the house adjoining the hotel have remonstrated against a public display of her charms, even if the temperature has been torrid enough on the third floor of the hostelry to compel the unconscious woman to walk around attired in nature's own sweet garb. The typewriter on the second floor is asked to make a memorandum of the sweet affair, as the hotel will shortly become famous through the medium of this rushing, gushing business.

EXCURSION TO INDIANAPOLIS.

The "Big Four Route" announces a special excursion to Indianapolis and return Sunday, September 10, at the extreme low rate of $1.50 for the round trip. Positively the last excursion of the season. Special train leaves Seventh Street Union Depot at 8 o'clock a. m. Returning train leaves Union Depot at Indianapolis at 7 o'clock p. m. Tickets on sale at city ticket office, 218 Fourth avenue, and Union Depot, corner Seventh and River.

A novel way to make sandwiches is to use horseradish grated while fresh, instead of mustard. Spread in a thin layer upon each buttered slice, and the result will be found an appetizing surprise.

HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing
the Past Week—General
News Notes.

The A. O. H., the A. O. H., God bless it night and day,
And may the angels guide and guard and keep it from decay.
Oh, may it grow from age to age in strength and unity,
And link the Gael in friendship's chain and Christian charity!

In evil days, when Ireland sank immersed in penal gloom,
It rose the messenger of hope from out the nation's tomb,
Stood strong as granite battlement around the stricken Gael
And scourged full oft in breach and field the bloodhounds of the pale.

It held aloft the torch of faith and morals in the land,
And guarded well the hunted priest when Erin's creed was banned.
The magic tongue of bard and chief, the golden Celtic lore,
It snatched from out oblivion's grave to life for evermore.

It clasps the exile to its breast beneath whatever sky,
Relieves the widow in distress and dries the orphan's eye.
The poor, the friendless and the sick receive its tender care,
And for its dead ascends to God its daily fervent prayer.

Ere spoke the guns of Lexington across the sea it came,
The foeman heard on Bunker Hill and trembled at its name.
On field and flood, Columbia! wherever thundered Mars,
To glory, fame and victory it bore the Stripes and Stars.

And in the future as in the past 'twill battle in the van
For justice, right and liberty for every creed and clan;
As faithful guard the starry flag on its adopted strand
As ever did its valiant sires the green on native land.

The A. O. H., the A. O. H., God bless it night and day!
And may the angels guide and guard and keep it from decay!
Still may it grow, from age to age, in strength and unity,
And link the Gael in friendship's chain and Christian charity.

The Young Men's Division announces its anniversary entertainment for Thanksgiving.

Division 3 meets Wednesday evening. The matter of the Elk's celebration will be acted upon.

The Young Men's Division will meet Tuesday evening. There should be a full attendance.

James Ross, the grocer at Eight and St. Catherine, is a royal entertainer of visiting Hibernians.

The Hibernians of Pawtucket have invited National President Keating to visit that city and deliver an address.

The Hibernians will have a St. Patrick's day celebration next March that will surpass any held for a number of years.

James Wolfe's friends will be glad to know that his business has so increased that he will have to enlarge his quarters at Eight and Oldham streets.

There will be a great turnout of the divisions of St. Paul on the occasion of the meeting of the German Catholic convention in that city September 17.

The next meeting of the County Board takes place on the third Tuesday of this month. It promises to be the most important one held for a long time.

Kelly. This was a high compliment, as his division already holds the Presidency of the board.

The announcement last week that the Ladies' Auxiliary would give a euchre was a mistake. The name was being used without authority. "Some ladies" does not mean or represent the auxiliary.

The annual outing of the Ancient Order of Hibernians of Cincinnati, under the auspices of Division 6 and the Ladies' Auxiliary, was held last Sunday at Manhattan Park. Athletic games and contests were features of the entertainment, which was largely attended.

The Hibernians of Montreal recently held a large and enthusiastic meeting to protest against the offensive custom of caricaturing their race which has prevailed in that city and other parts of Canada for a long time. The most effective way to resent this form of insult is to establish and maintain such papers as the Kentucky Irish American. During the past year the practice above referred to has been suspended by several publications not more than 100 miles from Louisville.

The clambake given by Company F, Ancient Order of Hibernian Rifles, and their friends, on Sunday last at Klondike Point, was a great success in every way and those who attended will not soon forget the day, says the Bridgeport Advocate. It was one of the best times ever enjoyed by the members of the rifle company, as every conceivable thing that ever was given at such an outing was on hand in abundance, and the best of good nature prevailed throughout the entire day. The Captains of the different companies of the regiment were present and enthusiasm was displayed as an account of the standing of their commands was given.

KNIGHTS OF REST.

The Knights of Rest gave their final reception of the season last Wednesday. The occasion was in honor of Henry C. Lauer. There was a large attendance of Mr. Lauer's friends, and all were handsomely entertained. At night the camping grounds were ablaze with lanterns, and the sight was a pretty one. There was a band of music present and many other entertainments.
